

Your Guide to Special Education Rights & Responsibilities

The laws that govern special education for children with disabilities are confusing to parents, school personnel, related service providers, and even many advocates and attorneys. Wrightslaw: Special Education Law, 3rd Edition provides a clear roadmap to the laws and how to get better services for all children with disabilities.

Learn what the laws say about

- ✓ Free Appropriate Public Education (FAPE) under IDEA & Section 504
- ✓ Child Find, Consent, Evaluations & Eligibility
- ✓ Individualized Education Programs & Section 504 Plans
- ✓ Placement, Least Restrictive Environment & Inclusion
- ✓ Safeguards, Mediation, Confidentiality, Due Process Hearings & Appeals
- ✓ Transition Plans & Services & Transition to Higher Ed .
- ✓ Discipline, Suspensions, Expulsions & the Right to FAPE
- ✓ Bullying, Harassment, Restraint, & Seclusion
- ✓ COVID, Compensatory Education, Reimbursement & Other Legal Remedies

Pete Wright, Esq. has represented children with disabilities since 1978. He represented Shannon Carter before the U.S. Supreme Court in Florence County School District IV v. Shannon Carter, 510 U.S. 7 (1993) where he won a landmark victory that has benefited all children with disabilities

Pam Wright is a psychotherapist who began working with children and families in the 1970s. She writes about raising, educating, and advocating for children with disabilities, built the Wrightslaw websites, and publishes The Special Ed Advocate newsletter.

Pete Wright and Pam Wright have written more than a dozen books on special education law and advocacy topics and founded Wrightslaw.com, the #1 ranked site about special education law and advocacy.

Wrightslaw: Special Education Law, 3rd Edition is an invaluable resource for parents, advocates, educators, and attorneys. You will refer to this book again and again.
